THE WORLD OF PLAYBOY

in which we offer an insider's look at what's doing and who's doing it

RUNNING ON HOUSE CURRENT

New Year's Eve, as you all know, means jammy time at Playboy Mansion West. During Hef's annual blast (left), Playmates Vicki McCarty and Terri Welles nuzzle the host. A new Mansion West staffer (below) wheels around asking guests to sign in, announcing films in the screening room and fetching his master's pipe. Hef's houseboy, Hef, Jr., arrived for the holidays, a present from his buddies James Caan, Robert Culp, songwriter Carol Connors and others.
